Rules and Regulations Gatton QH & PA Inc will take no responsibility for any loss, damage, injury or theft to any persons/horses, vehicles, or property whilst at these shows. All competitors compete at their own risk. • Gatton QH & PA Inc reserves the right to refuse entry to any competitor. • This show will run under the new AQHA Rule Book effective 1st August 2020 • All competitors MUST be either a member of AQHA or GQHPA to be covered by insurance • No pending registrations will be accepted. • All age refers to the horse. • RULE 80.4 - Approved safety helmets that conform to the current Australian Safety Standards must be worn in all hunter classes, by all exhibitors. The chin strap must be securely fastened under the chin at all times during competition and practice. Youth competitors must also wear such helmets when competing in working cow horse, boxing, any AQHA sporting class, lead line and youth walk/jog/trot classes. • It is recommended that an approved helmet to be worn when astride an English saddle anywhere on the grounds

- JUDGES DECISION IS FINAL - any protests must go through AQHA rulings. • DOGS must always be on a leash. Dogs are not permitted in the marshalling or main arenas. • All vet fees and call out fees at competitors' expense, if required. • ALL horses on the grounds MUST BE ENTERED in a class. • All buildings are NO SMOKING ZONES so please observe this ruling • No ALCOHOL is allowed in, or can be consumed in the Marshalling areas, working areas or show pen/contestant areas. • Competitors/participants always have a responsibility to ensure the welfare of their horses, to treat their horses humanely and with dignity, respect and compassion. • Competitors/participants are to conduct themselves in a professional manner and act with integrity in all dealings with the Affiliate and other competitors. To uphold the rules and regulations of AQHA, always demonstrate good sportsmanship, showing respect for your fellow competitors and officials. • All YOUTH taking part in an AQHA event MUST have written permission from their parent/guardian. • First aid officers are available on the grounds during the show hours. • Every horse entered for competition shall be under the control of the Show Manager or such person/s he appoints to act on his behalf. • Only contestants in the specific classes and show officials will be allowed in the competition arena or marshalling area during the judging. Everyone attending MUST be either an AQHA member or of GQHPA. • The Show Manager or such person he/she appoints shall have discretion to eject any exhibitor from the said area for inhumane treatment and/or training of any horse or failure to observe the Rules and Regulations of the competition and the Rules and Regulations of the AQHA or any reasonable request. Your co-operation is expected. • Show management may exclude horses from competition should there be any unnecessary delay on the part of the exhibitor in bringing the horse into the competition arena. It is the responsibility of the exhibitor to present themselves at the competition arena gate when called. Failure to report on final call will result in disqualification from the class. In the event that a horse is excluded from entry, all entry fees and charges for the class are forfeited without liability to the show organisers/committee. • Show management reserve the right to change the order of classes before or during the show. It is the responsibility of the exhibitor to be aware of any changes which will be posted at the Show Secretary's office and announced. Every endeavour will be made to give one hour's notice of any changes to the running order of events; however, every effort will be made to avoid changes.

- Any exhibitor or rider who refuses to obey the request of the Judge, Show Manager or any show official will be automatically disqualified from further competition at the show and forfeits all previous winnings together with all entry fees and other charges. At the discretion of the Show Manager or show committee, the offending individual and his/her entire exhibit may be removed from the grounds. • All horses must be serviceably sound. In case of suspected unsoundness, the Judge and/or Show Management may, if he/she so desires have the animal examined by the Show Veterinarian and his decision shall be final. • EWD - Equestrian With Disability • NO FIRES on the Grounds at ANY TIME HEALTH & SAFETY Health & Safety Officer - will be appointed and is responsible for the following: a) All equipment etc. to be used will need to be sanitised prior to use b) Name, address and phone number provided and the list kept for future reference if required by Government c) All persons on the ground to keep the minimum of 1.5 metres distancing at all times d) Parking of vehicles - allow reasonable distance between each parked vehicle e) Supply hand sanitiser at the entrance of all amenities (arena, stable/yard block, toilet facilities etc.) f) Supply a leaflet to all persons in attendance that details the hygiene required to be taking part in this gathering g) To make sure that if a person who turns up for this gathering is unwell that they are asked to leave immediately h) All persons on the ground competing must be a member of the AQHA or the Affiliate holding this event All people at the gathering must complete a sanitising protocol prior to leaving the grounds - including the sanitising of their equipment/tack, this is for the safety of this person, family and other persons that they will come in contact with after this gathering. This show is subject to QLD State Government COVID19 regulations Code of conduct No alcohol is allowed in, or can be consumed in the marshalling areas, working areas or show pen/contestant areas. Competitors/participants at any event run by GQPHA have a responsibility to always ensure the welfare of their horses and to treat their horses humanely and with dignity, respect and compassion. Competitors/participants are to conduct themselves in a professional manner and act with integrity in all dealings with the Affiliate and other competitors. To uphold the rules and regulations of the GQPHA always demonstrate good sportsmanship, showing respect for your fellow competitors and officials, following the rules and to treat people in the way you yourself wish to be treated. All youth competing or taking part in an AQHA approved event must have written permission from their parent/guardian to be at that event as a contestant or participant and in the case of a contest, the parent/guardian must also sign the entry form. All youth competing or taking part in an AQHA approved event must be in the care of a responsible adult who is in attendance for the duration of that event, whilst the youth is in attendance at that event.
